

Speaker Series:

Community, Faith, and Racial Justice

A series of talks on racial injustice in America that explores the role of Christianity, including the current white Christian Nationalist movement, in this injustice and seeks to define a path toward justice, healing and reconciliation.

Leah Rothstein

in conversation with Prof. Margalynne Armstrong

“Challenging Segregation With Just Action”

September 18, 2024

7:00 p.m. with light refreshments to follow

St. Mark’s Episcopal Church

600 Colorado Ave, Palo Alto, CA

Wheelchair accessible; Closed captioning available

Ms. Rothstein’s expertise in the full range of housing policy stems from more than two decades as a consultant to affordable-housing developers and local governments and as a community and union organizer. She is the co-author (with Richard Rothstein) of the recent book, Just Action: How to Challenge Segregation Enacted Under the Color of Law.

Prof. Armstrong is a St. Mark’s parishioner who teaches at Santa Clara University School of Law, where her courses include Race and Law, Constitutional Law, and Housing Discrimination. She is the author of numerous articles and book chapters on housing discrimination, privilege and other topics.

Please register for FREE tickets: tinyurl.com/september18speaker
Donations appreciated

Presented by St. Mark’s Episcopal Church*
Becoming Beloved Community Task Force
Email: beloved\_community@saint-marks.com
Series Website: tinyurl.com/stmarkseries

Upcoming Speaker:

February 26, 2025 Dr. Kathryn Gin Lum: Religion, Race and the ‘Heathens’

*Co-sponsors:

American Muslim Voice Foundation • First Congregational Church of Palo Alto UCC • First Presbyterian Church Palo Alto • Multifaith Voices for Peace and Justice • Peninsula Solidarity Cohort • Saint Andrew’s Episcopal Church, Saratoga • Saint Jude’s Episcopal Church, Cupertino • Saint Paul’s Episcopal Church, Burlingame • Saint Thomas Episcopal Church, Sunnyvale • Saint Timothy’s Episcopal Church, Mountain View • Showing Up for Racial Justice @Sacred Heart • Stanford Canterbury • Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, San Jose • Trinity Episcopal Church, Menlo Park • Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto • University Lutheran Church at Stanford