

P R E S E N T S :

THE CONVENING

A gathering of community housing organizations and corporations to review current public and private efforts to increase the national housing supply.

September 12, 2024

National Press Club
529 14th St. NW, Washington, DC
9:30 am - 4:00 pm

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Richard Rothstein

Author of the bestseller The Color of Law

OUR COMMUNITY'S SOCIAL & ECONOMIC FUTURE IS AT STAKE!

✓ Amidst a Supreme Court influenced by extreme right views, recent rulings embracing "color blindness and originalism" overturn decades of civil and economic progress, hindering efforts to rectify past discrimination in areas like employment and voting.

✓ Until achieving a balanced and fair Supreme Court, promoting homeownership remains a crucial strategy for community empowerment. It serves as a race and gender-neutral avenue to enhance intergenerational wealth, bolstering access to quality education, employment, and healthcare within our communities.

INVITED SPEAKERS FROM THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS:

- Up for Growth
- J. Ronald Terwilliger Center for Housing Policy
- Modular Home Builders Association
- YIMBY Action
- HUD
- Federal Reserve
- National Economic Council

REGISTER NOW